NOV 1743

MONDAY DECEMBER 5. 1743.

Since our last arriv'd a Mail from Holland and another from Flanders.

Petersburgh, November 19.

H E Baron de Mardefelt, Minister from his Prussian Majesty, is in great Credit here. He has been for some Time negotiating an Affair of Importance, into which none of our Politicians could penetrate till it was concluded; and now it appears to be our Accession to the Treaty of Breslaw, by which his Majesty gains the Guarantee of the Czarina for Silesia; but what Return he is to make, does not appear; but some fancy there will be no Applications for the future, in Behalf of the Prince and Princess of Brunswick. Sir Cyril Wych, the English Minister, is looking out for a very fine Palace in this City for the Earl of Tyravley, who is coming with the Title of Ambassador Extraordinary from his Britannick Majesty. The Report of an Alliance with France prevails much more than it pleases; and as to a Treaty of Commerce, the Senate are averse to it. The Grand Vizir has given our Minister at Constantinople to understand, that our close Conjunction with the French displeases the Porte to such a Degree, as to threaten, that in case any Advantage in Trade should be granted to Merchants of that Nation here, they will immediately interrupt our Commerce on the Black and Caspian Seas, and deprive the French of all their Privileges in the Levant. This strange Turn is supposed to take Rise from a Suspicion that the Turks entertain, as if all the Christian Powers were inclined to favour the Enterprizes of Thamas Kouli Kan, to their Prejudice; and a Doubt whether, in Virtue of this Alliance, France might not engage in some Correspondence with him to their Loss.

Naples, November 12. By Directions from the Court, M. Mahony, the Vicar-General in Calabria, was lately recalled hither to assist at a Conference which was held in the Presence of the King, relating, as is said, to the State of the Malady at Reggio, and its Neighbourhood, which continues to afflict the Country; and tho' it is pretended with less Mortality, yet the Government appears extremely uneasy about it. The King, on Notice that since the Discovery of the Sickness at Messina and Calabria, no Accidents have happened in the Ecclesiastical State, has ordered the Barriers, Guards, &c. to be removed from the Land Side on the Borders of this Kingdom with that State, and only the usual Precautions to be continued by Sea. Repeated Councils of State have been held at Court upon the Dispatches lately brought by a Courier from the Spanish Army in the Romagna, the Purport of which are kept very secret. On the 3d Instant their Majesties and the young Princes returned to the City from Portici.

Venice, November 22. Our last Advices from Bologna say, that M. de Gages had fortified his Camp in such a manner, as that Prince Lobkowitz found it impossible for him to force it, till he received fresh Supplies of Foot. The same Letters inform us, that his Highness finding himself continually betray'd by the Partizans of Spain in that Neighbourhood, had been obliged to arrest several Noblemen, and to threaten very severe Contributions, in case they persist in this Kind of Conduct. They add farther, that Prince Lobkowitz having received certain Intelligence, that the King of the Two Sicilies was determined to join his Forces (in case of Extremity) to those of the Spaniards, had thereupon withdrawn most of his Troops to Rimini, there to wait the Arrival of his Artillery and Reinforcements, as well as the English Squadron upon the Coast, and then will resume his first Design, of forcing the Duke of Modena in his Camp, or following him, if he retires, even into the Kingdom of Naples.

Vienna, November 27. The Queen our Sovereign, has issued her Circular Letter to the States of Hungary, by which she invites them hither, to assist at the Solemnization of the Marriage of her Sister, the Arch-Duchess Mary-Anne, with Prince Charles. Her Majesty has also signified her Resolution to erect, in her Kingdom of Hungary, an Academy, that the young Noblemen and Gentlemen may not be obliged to leave their Native Country in order to obtain the Advantages of a proper Education. The only Dispute on this Subject further is, whether it shall be fixed at Presburgh, or Buda. As yet our Court seems to have discovered no Cause to alter its manner of acting, in regard to the Precautions necessary for the Security of the Frontiers; for upon his Prussian Majesty's removing the grand Magazines from Grotkau to Neiss, and increasing the Garrison there to three Regiments of Foot, and one of Hussars, it has been resolved, besides the Forces ordered into Moravia, to form in the Country of Troppau, which is the only Part of Silesia not yielded to Prussia, a Camp of between 9 and 10,000 Men. Field-Marshal Count Khevenhuller arrived here Yesterday in the Evening, and was received by the Queen, and all the August Family, with all the Respect due to the great Services he has rendered to the House of Austria. It is expected, that the military Conferences will be immediately begun, in order to fix, without Delay, the Operations of the next Campaign. We expect, on the 30th, being the Feast of St. Andrew, a grand Promotion of Knights of the Golden Fleece. Among these, will be the two Counts de Khevenhuller; viz. the Field-Marshal, and the Grand Marshal of the Court; the Count de Uhlefeld, Great Chancellor of the Court; the young Prince Lichtenstein; the Counts de Kinski and Bathiani, Chancellors of Hungary and Bohemia; and the Count de Herberstein, Marshal of Austria. The States of Lower Austria have been lately assembled, and were harangued by the Count de Seilern, Chancellor of that Duchy; who afterwards laid before them her Majesty's Demands. The Difference subsisting at present between our Court and that of Rome, is on the Point of being adjusted; in order to which, his Holiness will declare Cardinals the Archbishops Coloza and Olmutz, having, at the last Promotion, reserved three Names in petto.

Frankfort, December 5. The new Levies and Recruits for his Imperial Majesty's Service, are carried on here, and in the Neighbourhood of this City, with all the Success that can be expected. M. de Lautrec, the French Ambassador, having lately received from his Court some Dispatches of Importance, went immediately to communicate them to the Emperor, who was very well satisfied with their Contents. Count Montijo is speedily expected here again from Paris, where he is said to have succeeded perfectly in his Negotiation. The Saddlers in this City have agreed to furnish the French Agent with 1500 Saddles, as soon as they can be finish'd; and as an Agreement has been made by M. Saleberry, the French Agent to the Circle of Franconia, with the Shoemakers of Nuremberg, for 10,000 Pair of Boots, and with the Saddlers for a like Number of Saddles, we cannot help suspecting, that either a new French Army will enter Germany, or that a great Body of German Troops will speedily be taken into the Pay of that Crown.

I R E L A N D.

Limerick, November 22. We hear from Cork, that last Week a Vessel of 300 Tons Burden, laden with Bale-Goods, Beef, and Butter, was lost on the Giants Steps, going out of that Harbour. Her Cargo was computed to be worth 12,000 l.

Dublin, November 25. The Right Hon. Robert Jocelyn, Esq; Lord Chancellor, is created a Baron of this Kingdom, by the Name, Style, and Title, of Baron Newport, of Newport in the County of Tipperary.

Dublin, November 26. On the 13th Instant, about five or six o'Clock in the Evening, Frances Ingoldsby, of Nantenan in the County of Limerick, Spinster, who is now seized of a considerable real Estate, was forcibly carried out of the House of the Rev. Thomas Royle, of Nantenan, aforesaid, by Hugh Fitz-John Maffly, John Boucher, Michael Scanlon the younger, James Curran, and Timothy Cromeen, with the Assistance of several other Persons in Arms, whose Names are unknown; which Persons did likewise, then, feloniously take out of the said House several Arms. And the said Maffly and the rest of his Confederates having absconded and concealed themselves, so as they cannot be apprehended or taken, the Lord Lieutenant and Council have promised a Reward of 200 l. for apprehending either Maffly or Boucher, and 50 l. for each of the others, in order that they may be brought to Punishment. And also, that if any of the Persons guilty of the said Felony, or their Accessories who are now at large, and not in Confinement; other than and except the said Hugh Fitz-John Maffly, and John Boucher, shall discover his or her Accessories within the Time aforesaid, so as they, or any of them, be convicted, such Person so discovering shall, over and above the said Reward, receive his Majesty's most gracious and free Pardon for the said Offence.

By the Bishorough Galley, Capt. Mercer, which arrived in this Port on Monday, we learn, that on the Saturday before she was drove on a sunken Rock off Wexford, and lost her false Keel; a Vessel a small Distance from her was dash'd to Pieces, and every Soul perish'd.

Upon the coming in of the Packets Yesterday, which brought the agreeable News of his Majesty's safe Arrival in England, and also of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales being safely deliver'd of a Prince, the Flag was immediately display'd upon Bermingham Tower; and the great Guns fired in the Phoenix Park, and the Night concluded with ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

H O M E P O R T S.

Dublin, November 26. Arrived the St. Catherine, Da Silva, from Lisbon; the Mary-Anne, Pillow, from Bourdeaux; the St. Clare, McCarthy, from Havre; the St. John Baptist, Espanola, from Faro; and the Three Friends, Davis, from Antigua. ## L O N D O N.

Private Letters from Dresden say, that a definitive Treaty, between that Court and the Court of Vienna, has been lately concluded, under the Mediation of his Britannick Majesty; and that the former was soon to march a Body of Troops for the Service of the latter.

They write from Turin, that Admiral Mathews had thought proper to go in Person to Genoa, in order to settle some Affairs of Importance to the Common Cause.

We hear from Ostend, that four of our Men of War and a Fireship, have been observed, for some Time, cruising off the Port of Dunkirk; but with what View does not as yet appear.

Orders were sent immediately, on the News of the Death of the Bishop and Prince of Liege, for the Hanoverians, who were to have winter'd in the Electorate of Cologne, to march into the Austrian Netherlands directly.

We have Advice from Paris, that Count Maurice of Saxony will be speedily declared Captain-General of his most Christian Majesty's Forces, in order to enable him to command in Chief a great Army in the Spring.

The Account formerly publish'd in this Paper, of his Prussian Majesty having ordered 40,000 Men to be ready to march, is confirmed by this Mail.

Letters from Holland say, that the States-General will very speedily not only complete their third Augmentation, but proceed to a fourth.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, &c. of the Borough of King's Lynn, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir John Turner, Bart. and Edward Bacon, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

May it please your Majesty,

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in Council assembled, humbly presume to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and happy Return to these your Dominions, after the Dangers and Fatigues you have undergone, for the Protection of your Allies, and the Support of the Liberties of Europe.

Prompted by real Duty and Affection, we beg Leave more particularly to congratulate your Majesty upon the glorious Success of your Arms at Dettingen, owing (under God) to your Majesty's Conduct and Behaviour. A Behaviour, Sir, that struck Terror into the Hearts of your Enemies, and filled Europe with Admiration, demands the sincerest, the loudest Acknowledgments of a grateful People.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time, to offer our most sincere Congratulations upon the Increase of your Royal Family, by the Birth of a Prince; and our most hearty Thanks for this fresh Instance of your Majesty's great Regard and Attention to the Security of the Protestant Interest, by the Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark.

* We heartily implore the Divine Providence, that watched over you in the Day of Battle, to grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign, as well for the Prosperity of these your Kingdoms, as for the general Welfare of Europe. And in all Duty and Gratitude we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will contribute, to the utmost of our Power, to the Ease and Support of your Majesty's Government.

Given under our common Seal at the Guildhall in the Borough aforesaid, this 28 h Day of November, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Reign,

A very dutiful and loyal Address has been presented to the King from the City of Coventry, by his Grace the Duke of Oratton, Recorder of the said City.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Mr. John Pine, his Majesty's chief Engraver of Signets, Seals, Stamps, &c. the Office and Place of Blue Mantle Pursuant of Arms in Ordinary.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Williams preach'd before his Majesty at St. James's.

The Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Lymerick arriv'd in Town from Ireland on Friday last.

Yesterday Morning died at his Lodgings in Kingstreet, Westminster, Mr. Sheerman, one of the Chief Clerks in the Exchequer.

Last Saturday the Right Hon. the Lord Walpole set out for Houghton Hall in Norfolk.

The same Day the following Numbers were drawn Prizes in the State Lottery; viz. 57,324, 500 l. 43,409, 35,606, 1979, 8860, 19,236, 77,034, 16,537, 19,186,
15,513, 100 l. each.

This is to inform the Publick, That the Business of the late Mr. Benjamin Cole, Broker, will be carried on, for the Benefit of the Widow, &c. by Cotton and Lambert, at their Office against the Royal Exchange, Cornhill, and at Cole's Old Lottery-Office, next the Union Coffee-House, Exchange-Alley: At which Offices, during the Drawing, Tickets and Shares of Tickets, Chances and Shares of Chances, warrant undrawn, will be sold at the lowest Prices, and all other Business as a Broker, or relating to the Lottery, transacted with the utmost Care and Fidelity, by the above said Cotton and Lambert. Ready Money for Blanks and Prizes so soon as drawn.

The present State of the Lottery. In the Wheel, one Prize of 10,000 l. three of 5000 l. all the 3000 l. three of 2000 l. twelve of 1000 l. each; seventeen of 500 l. and more than a Proportion of 100 l. 50 l. &c. yet the moderate Price of Tickets enables Messieurs Lowe and Berry to sell their Shares on the cheapest Terms, as well as Chances. The Purchaser is sure of not being imposed on, but buying genuine Tickets, and undrawn, at their Office in Stationers-Alley, Ludgate-street, as they warrant them with their own Hands. Their Numerical Book is much followed for its Correctness, as their Business is not interrupted with the Noise of the Publick Streets, and as they will not examine during the Hours of Drawing.

N. B. They sold the greatest Prize that has been bought at any Office this Lottery, only three Hours before it was drawn.
